Crack.[Use our full zip crack] in the download tab.Q: How to use the T.Replace() to replace characters for lists I have a string variable S that stores a list of characters.

I would like to replace characters in the list and put them in a variable with the same name. My code is : For X as integer = 1 to 1000 i = S.Replace(S,"[i]",i) Next All what I get is a 4 rows of lists instead of one single column. A: You can do this in one line Dim i as Integer = S.Replace("[i]","i") Q: Is there anyway to use C# to read a text file and return a string with a specified line number? I have a text file with lots of lines of information, and each line can start at an arbitrary point. I want to read the file line by line, convert the content of each line to a string, and then merge them in a method that returns the content of the specified line. For example, I have a text file like this title 5 3

text 1 2

And this is what I want to do: Read the text file Return a string "title 5 3 text 1 2" Is there any way to do this in C#? A: `var strings = File.ReadLin`

es("fileName.txt").Skip(lineNumber).ToArray(); var stringToReturn = string.Join(Environment.NewLine, strings); Don't forget to import System.IO. I think this helped me the most: D:/RHA/R:> df[1,] player goalA goalB goalC goalD 1 GK1 0cc13bf012

The Salvation Army has been around for more than 130 years and is the largest evangelical social services agency in the United States. It serves more than 5 million people a year. During the past three years, the Salvation Army's contributions to health care costs have increased in many areas of the country. For instance, in 2010, it spent $27 million on health care. In 2011, it spent $31 million. In 2012, it spent $35 million.

Unlike the United States government, which has fallen into a cycle of failing to invest in the future, the Salvation Army has successfully invested in the health care of its employees.
