It's that they are faking it, and that we are all being suckered by it. Back in the 1960s, the architect Sir Edwin Lutyens was in a hurry to build New Delhi's Houses of Parliament, and elected to do the job using slave labour. He sent an urgent memo to Ministry of Labour, explaining he needed 3,000 labourers for three months, to build a new wing of the Houses of Parliament in New Delhi. "The need was urgent, as were the monetary incentives, as was the urgency to get the job done quickly, with the unions looking on," said David Reynolds, the author of Lutyens and the British Empire. "The work was to be done by inmates of the Indian borstal system, to whom Lutyens offered free board, lodging, and light entertainment. "Almost immediately the local authority ran into problems: the inmates grew free of their chains and held up worksite machinery, and several dozen were brought before a magistrate for extortion and extortionate ransoming." As well as the new franchise which has been designed from the ground up for current gen, the team has also revealed that we can look forward to extended hours of content for Max Payne 3.

Already confirmed to be making a return to the game industry, Stephen Russell reprises his role as Max Payne in Max Payne 3. Once a renowned NYPD Detective, Max went undercover to combat drug cartels across Latin America. The tragic events of The Bullet Train eventually drove him on a quest for redemption. Leaping back into a current-gen environment, Square Enix has stated that Max Payne 3 will feature an extensive single-player story with "extended" hours of

Not Just Another Modern Role Playing Game - "Huge, Beautiful, and Fun"
GameRevolution.com "For an RPG, it runs like an absolute dream." RPGamer.com "If it's modern gaming you're after, RPG fans won't want to miss out on this gem. It's pretty much a must have on any system and while it may not have all the bells and whistles of a fully fledged modern RPG such as Final Fantasy 14, the TRPG aspect and elegant core rules make it a more than competent choice for the modern gamer." RPGGround.com "Elite" (G4 TV) "...Basically, is the best RPG on the market." EdgeOnline.com "The game...just may well be the best RPG on the market right now." Cult of Gamers "A Real Pick-Up-and-Play Role Playing Game" Anithetal.com "In a field that has become overrun with mediocrity and near-misses by the pseudo-MMO crowd, there have been few games as welcome as this." RPGamer.com "It's A Gorgeous Game" Kotaku.com "We'd never normally recommend a $60 PS3 game, but this title offers genuine value."
