Only Bertrand Traore and Memphis Depay are now confirmed to be fit enough for selection while only Vincent Janssen and Jorrit Hendrix are now reported to be nearing a return. There is little doubt in the minds of the supporters that recovering those players will add a platform of strength and instil the will to win that is so much in short supply these days. The Football Association of the Netherlands (KNVB) have released a statement on the matter via FFT, suggesting that the country has the chance to spend 11 matches without a game
