In order to fund the construction of new schools, hospitals and other facilities, the Scottish Government has a target of £1.75bn before the referendum on 18 September 2016 and £2.25bn afterwards. The money will be used to fund major projects across Scotland – those that are not eligible for further council tax increases – and a shortlist of projects is being drawn up by the Scottish Government. Here's the full list of projects that may receive funding: Hospitals – £800m Establish new hospitals and upgrade existing hospitals. Scottish Livingstone National Health Service plans to establish new hospitals e79caf774b
