I bought the gear and tracked it all the way from Brazil and it arrived in great shape with no damage to anything. The customer service was great as well - I gave them my credit card but they called me back a few hours later to ask if I needed any more info before shipping it back. Had no issues whatsoever. Having the ability to order any supplies with one shot rather than having to send emails or do live chatting is a world of difference. Been running the Trio with trackball for a few years now and I love it. The quality of this product is EXCELLENT. Got my amp with a crack in it, and the tech said they would ship me a new amp free of charge, so I got a new amp! Pretty sure it's still under warranty, but I can't remember if I still have to send it to them or if they will send it to me. Either way, it should still be covered. Also, highly recommend this service, they will go above and beyond to make sure you are happy! Awesome! I got these bad boys before breakfast and they are already in. I definitely recommend this site as I'm sure I will be using it again for more. Thanks again guys! The seller was awesome to work with. He shipped them the next day and there were no issues. Great communication and fast shipping. The Little Phatty has been an awesome little amp, I've used it in several different situations but nothing beats on the fly with the PA. I definitely recommend this for anyone looking to get an amp But, I bought the product and used it for a semester. The problem was I couldn't get it to function properly. So I switched to using the Pioneer DEH-X50D. After returning the product I got a Rush delivery and I like the product. Easy set up and functions as I expected. I'd buy from them again. I never get shipping issues with these guys, they are always on time. Orderd in the order I needed and the package came in a 3 day time frame. But they are the best for private Also the service is great. My father ordered a female voice activation and was told a few weeks later that it would take 5 weeks to ship. They called me and within like 2 minutes I was Setting up the
