Defend your data servers against viruses! Data Defense is a minimalist tower defense game. Here's what you get in the game: A tower defense game with a difference... the built in enemies are global and go beyond the game's regular path. Build your own path and use the tools provided by the server. The game is about computers and servers, and these are some of the places you might encounter viruses on their way to ruin your server. Viruses can target all of the server's internal assets, and the sooner you clean them out, the better. Data Defense is richly featured with over 30 towers to choose from, all of which have a totally different playstyle, with amazing particle effects, physics and sounds. These towers will create attack waves that get bigger in number, time and power as your towers attack successfully. You are provided with a complete set of data-protected towers, a high-quality game audio engine, and a complete UI that provides you with an easy to use interface. ★ Overview: Data Defense has a unique interface and tower mechanic. Build your path with towers and use the tools provided to defend your server in an entertaining way. Features: ★ 30 Towers - each one has its own unique playstyle: - Generic - Your tower is fully generic, and it's just about surviving! - Shield - Just build a long line of shields. It's better if you can escape. - Cannon - Your tower is a cannon. Nothing gets past this tower! - Speed - An active physics particle field around your tower grants enemies a lot of speed to come and attack your tower. - Heavily Weaponized - A heavy weaponized tower attacks the largest enemies with a massive amount of damage, it also spams bullets everywhere. - Slow - Its the tower that builds slow. The enemy's speed is even slower, enabling defense against the tower. - Anti-Air - A super strong anti-air tower. Nothing gets by this tower. ★ Pushable/Moveable Towers - Choose from 30 different towers, and build your own path using the pushable/moveable towers. ★ Enemy Physics - Build a path and see all of the enemies work their way towards your tower. The type of tower and the path you build all have an impact on how enemies behave and attack. ★ Fun Gameplay - Enjoy a game with a fun new tower mechanic. ★ Amazing Game Audio - Build a path and watch the
