In the instant case, a thorough review of the procedural history in the hundreds of filings before the trial court indicates that trial counsel did not act “in a professionally unreasonable manner.” Id. For example, he presented the case through cross- examination of the victim and his medical expert regarding the victim’s statements in his medical charts and through the testimony of defense witnesses regarding inconsistencies between the victim's medical records and the victim's trial testimony. Appellant has not demonstrated "a reasonable probability that, but for counsel's errors, the result of the proceeding would have been different." Commonwealth v. Johnson, 966 A.2d 523, 533 (Pa. 2009) (citation and quotations omitted). Therefore, we will not grant appellant a new trial on this basis. - 17 - J-S27021-19
